CSP shunted, three TIs...

Announcing strict action against police officials found guilty of laxity in handling the case, he said that the SIT had been asked to complete the probe at the earliest. He also announced that the police would ensure that exemplary punishment was awarded to the culprits by the court.

Meanwhile, all the four accused have been identified and three of them are already in police net. The trio was produced in court on Friday. While two were sent to jail by the court one was remanded to police custody. One of the accused is still on the run.

UP civic polls: Maya leaving no stone unturned for BSP win

Lucknow

With the BSP deciding to contest urban local body polls on party symbol after a gap of over two decades, party supremo Mayawati is camping here to monitor preparations and finalise candidates. She is in the state capital and is meeting zonal and divisional level office-bearers on a regular basis and giving instructions on how to go about the elections, a party leader said. The party, which has otherwise stayed away from local body polls in the past, has decided to enter into fray this time round in order to deal with fresh challenges through a new strategy. Though BSP's base is not as strong in urban areas (as in rural areas), the party decided to face these elections in view of growth in people's support in urban areas as well and now it does not want to leave anything to chance and go with full preparations, he said. The names of candidates are being discussed and senior leaders have been asked to apprise cadres and supporters that they have to put in all their might in these elections in a disciplined manner, the leader said.

As the process of nominations has started, the lists of candidates are likely to be announced in 3 to 4 days time, the party leader said, Misra. Nakul Dubey and Lalji Verma, RS MP Ashok Siddhart and Shamsuddin Rien, who is in-charge of western UP, will campaign for the nominees, he said. As of now there is no plan of the party president taking part in active campaigning, he said. It was after one of the worst drubbing at the hustings early this year that party supremo Mayawati convened a meeting of party leaders of UP and Uttarak-adding names of hand here for a detailed discussion on the issue of ursome mayoral canban body polls in the state didates have already been announced. and it was decided that they will be contested on party Senior leaders state unit president Ram symbol. The BSP chief had told her partymen that ef-Achal Rajbhar, former ministers Antu forts will be to give good results with the help of 'sarv samaj' (entire society). The BSP has not fought urban body polls on party ticket after 1995 and the decision to contest them this time was on a demand from leaders who believed it was time to make the party's presence felt in the state, especially after the debacle in assembly polls. Civic polls are crucial for Mayawati and her BSP as the party has been on the downslide ever since losing power in the state PTI

The Enforcement Directorate has issued a FEMA notice to Kashmiri separatist leader Yasin Malik and two others for alleged forex violation of Rs 48.23 lakh, official sources said on Friday. The show cause notice to the Jammu and Kashmir Liberation Front chief and a Srinagar-based couple was issued recently by the central probe agency under provisions of the Foreign Exchange Management Act, they said. The case relates to a 2001 FIR from the Jammu and Kashmir police, which seized USD 1,00,000 (about Rs 48.23 lakh according to conversion rates at the time) from Srinagar -based Mushtaq Ahmad Dar and his wife Shamima alias Shazia alias Bitti.

New Delhi

ED issues FEMA Hundreds bid teary adieu notice to Yasin to BJYM leader Bhat

Srinagar

Hundreds of local residents in Shopian district of Jammu and Kashmir today bade a tearful adieu to BJP vouth wing leader Gowhar Hussain Bhat, who was allegedly killed by militants. The residents of Bonagam in Shopian, 52 km from here, participated at his funeral procession that passed through the roads of the village before his mortal remains were laid to rest, officials said.

The sizeable number of people at the funeral surprised observers here as there is not much support for the BJP in the predominantly Muslim-majority Kashmir Valley.

The body of Bhat, aged 30, who was kidnapped by militants, was recovered from an orchard in Kiloora in Shopian district of south Kashmir yesterday with his throat slit.

Bhat was the district president of the Bhartiya Janata Yuva Morcha and had been associated with the party for over two years.

BJP holds protests:

The BJP held anti-Pakistan protests and set afire the Pakistani national flag in Rajouri district here to protest the killing of Bhat.

Led by BJP MLA Ravinder Raina, the protesters took out marches in the border towns of Sunderbani and Noushera, and staged demonstrations amid the chanting of anti-Pakistan and anti-militants slogans. PTI

21% reduction in Maoist violence this year: Singh

There has been a 21% reduction in violent Maoist incidents across the country this year compared to the corresponding period in 2016, it was announced at an high-level union Home Ministry meeting held on Friday. Home Minister Rajnath Singh assured of providing all possible support to the Chhattisgarh govt to deal with Maoists. "During the meeting, it was brought out which includes provision of paramilitary forces, helicopters, UAVs and Counter Insurgency and Anti Terrorist Schools.

"In addition, 11 India Reserve Battalions and two Special India Reserve Battalions have been sanctioned to the state. Funds have also been provided for fortification of 75 police stations and for capacity building of Special Forces under the Special Infrastructure Scheme. "As part of the multipronged strategy to deal with LWE, the central government gives equal focus to development measures to bring Maoist-affected districts at par with other areas. Towards this end, the central government has approved a Special Central Assistance Scheme for 35 worst affected LWE districts with an annual outlay of Rs 1,000 crore Important development schemes include the Road Requirement Plan (RRP) Phase-I under which Chhattisgarh was sanctioned 1988 km of road out of which 1351 km have been completed," it said. The statement said under the RRP-II, Chhattisgarh has been sanctioned a further 891 km of road. To improve mobile connectivity, 519 towers have been installed in Phase-I and another 1,028 towers are being planned in Phase-II of the project, it said. IANS

ED swoops down on five music f

• FP NEWS SERVICE Mumbai

The Enforcement Directorate on Friday swooped down on five top music companies -- Universal, T-series, Sa Re Ga Ma and YRF Music – in connection with a money laundering case.

Lyricist Javed Akhtar is among the complainants in the case along with other artists who have alleged nonpayment of royalties and other gross irregularities in the functioning of the Indian Performing Right Society and the Phonographic Performance Limited. The ED had registered a case against the two entities under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act on the basis of these complaints. The other two specific charges are cheating and criminal conspiracy. In May this year, Akhtar had also given a statement in this matter. It is alleged that an amount of Rs 13.04 crore was retained by PPL, which led to nonpayment of royalties to the members of the IPRS. In fact, last year, the ED had attached assets worth Rs 13 crore of PPL, describing it as "the "proceeds of crime." The agency also attached mutual funds worth Rs 70.17 crore of the IPRS.

During investigation, it was found that office bearers of IPRS had assigned PPL the rights to issue user licenses and collect royalties on revenue sharing per song basis. Over a period of time, there were allegations that together with a ers of IPRS and of Holding Pvt Ltd (SI indulged in crimina cheating by not payin the artist/labels.

The IPRS was forn a representative bo music including con rectors, lyricists and music; it is also the body to issue licence age of music within son. It collects royal and music played at restaurants, radio stations, television channels, among others, and then distributes it among the authors/composers and publishers.

"Whether Nitish Kumar has boarded these trains or not, the country know why he named them so. Why did he name the two trains so without permission from the Ministry?" the RJD leader said. As for his photograph with a young woman, he said it was an old one when he was playing the IPL cricket. "It is normal for a girl to take a selfie with a cricketer. I don't know her personally. She has pictures with other cricket players or celebrities. That does not mean she is of bad character or that my character is bad," Tejashwi Yadav said. He said JD-U spokespersons, on instruction from Nitish Kumar, had "lowered the standard of politics", but the RJD will not

The development comes a day after Leader of Opposition Tejashwi Yadav attacked Nitish Kumar and questioned accused Rakesh Singh's "easy access" to the Chief Minister's official residence here. Four JD-U spokespersons on Friday held a press conference and alleged that Tejashwi Yadav, younger son of Rashtriya Janata Dal chief Lalu Prasad and former Deputy Chief Minister, himself
